

Kathryn Udasco, Class of 2005

Regional Enablement Coach, RBC

“ Learn from your failures or missed opportunities, don't dwell too long, or life will pass you by - always get back up and try again. ”

Kathryn Udasco is an accomplished business professional with over 16 years of experience at RBC, where she currently serves as a Regional Enablement Coach. In this role, she supports regional teams through targeted coaching, strategic initiatives, and a strong focus on employee development. She has a proven track record of leadership, having previously held roles as a Branch Manager and Assistant Branch Manager, where she successfully led branch operations and team growth.

Beyond her corporate responsibilities, Kathryn is deeply committed to community engagement and mentorship. She volunteers as a Business Mentor with the Toronto Region Immigrant Employment Council (TRIEC), where she has dedicated nearly three years to helping newcomers integrate into the Canadian workforce by providing coaching, effective communication guidance, and confidence-building activities. She is also actively involved with Ascend Canada, contributing to the Social Committee to promote cultural diversity and inclusion within the professional community.

Additionally, Kathryn co-chairs the RBC Mosaic Toronto West Chapter, championing cultural diversity and fostering an inclusive workplace by investing in employees' personal and professional development. With her strong blend of professional expertise and community service, she is passionate about empowering others and creating positive, lasting impact within and outside of her organization.
